SAN FRANCISCO DISTRICTS 6-9 SUMMARY

▲ 220.5%

Sales volume skyrocketed in Q2 2021 as buyer confidence returns to the downtown market. 827 deals were recorded, a strong improvement over the same period last year, jumping 220.5% YoY.

▲ 1.7%

Downtown San Francisco witnessed QoQ improvement in the average PPSF to $1,164/SF, up 1.7% in Q2 2021, resulting from increased sales volume and buyer demand.

▼ 9.5%

Despite increased demand overall, the luxury condo market priced $3M+ saw a drop in PPSF, down 9.5% YoY to $1,636/SF, as luxury pricing has yet to meet demand.

With most of the restrictions lifted and the general population in San Francisco vaccinated, business, travel, and leisure witnessed a surge as residents returned to pre-pandemic activities in Q2 2021. With low inventory for single-family homes and buyer demand back into the core urban living downtown, Q2 fundamentals showed an upward momentum for the condo sector. Coupled with low-interest rates, a transition of renters to buyers, second homes purchases, and homeowners looking to cash out, upgrade existing space, or location.

However, buyers continued to look for deals in the market and while most of fundamentals suggest skyrocketing demand, pricing is slowly returning to pre pandemic levels. Values remained down year-over year; however, that delta is quickly closing. With most companies announcing return to work or allowing hybrid models, former renters and commuters have transitioned into first time homebuyers or second home buyers. The importance of shorter commutes, walkability to the office, and amenities like outdoor space, pools, gyms, and other perks are more important than ever before.

The pricing per square foot, on average, remained soft, down 3.4% YoY, albeit an increase of 1.7% QoQ to $1,164/SF. New development sales volume in San Francisco skyrocketed 220.5% YoY and jumped 28.4% QoQ, recording 827 closings in Q2 2021. The average sales price was $1.38M - an improvement of 2.8% QoQ. However, on a year over year basis, it is still down 2.6%.

The $2M to $3M price segment (Luxury Condo Market) saw the strongest demand in Q2 2021 with a sales volume increase of 305% YoY and 42.1% QoQ, recording 81 closings. The average sales price increased by 5.1% YoY and 3.8% QoQ, to $2.425M. The average ppsf also increased 7.5% YoY and 4.5% QoQ, to $1,313. District 7 represented as the Marina, Cow Hollow, Pacific Heights, and Presidio Heights markets saw the greatest momentum this quarter as sales volumes rose 190% from last year and the average sales price and PPSF rose 10.4% and 9.0%, respectively.

The quarterly MarketWatch, beginning on Page 4, highlights overall market trends in District 6, 7, 8, and 9, which collectively encompass most new development projects in the city. Each of these districts is broken down to paint a more granular picture of each sub-market.

On Page 14, a citywide exploration of each currently selling new development project, including the most recent closings at each, followed by a brief overview of upcoming projects which are under construction or have yet to break ground.
